

Successful strategies need to be shared!

4th MS/JH National Conference for Choral Music
A Virtual Conference Empowering Everyone

Host: Cambiata Institute, Alan McClung, Ph.D. director
Host Location: University of North Texas, Denton

Interest Session Presentations

Submission Procedures

- A call for interest sessions that focus on the needs and interests of middle school choral music educators and their students

Conference Theme: A Virtual Conference Empowering Everyone

Anticipated Length of Interest Sessions: Open to negotiation (15 minutes to 45 minutes)

Procedure: Send a thoughtful presentation outline and professional vita to ms.jh.conference@unt.edu

Due Date: October 1, 2017

Selection Process: Complete submissions will be reviewed by five members of the 2018 Conference Steering Committee.

Notification Date: October 15, 2017

Projected Interest Session Completion Date: May, 2018

Presentation Procedures

- As a “virtual” conference, interest sessions will be video recorded in the presenter’s home region/university. The HD recordings will be synthesized by the Cambiata Institute to produce an interest session chapter to include in the Conference Documentary. The five-chapter documentary will be uploaded onto the Cambiata Institute web site as a “national/international educational resource to classroom teachers, students, college methods classes, administrators, and all interested persons. The anticipated release date is June, 2018. Anticipated availability: For years to come!
- For greater detail: See Conference Overview